

BIBLE & LEADERSHIP TRAINING – CHURCH EQUIPPING NETWORK – YAOUNDE, CAMEROON

As the capital of Cameroon, Yaoundé's population of 2.5 million makes it the second largest city and a center for civil and diplomatic services. The work of Encompass Global Workers together with the growth of the church in Central Africa has created the need to train more leaders for existing churches and future church-planting. The Encompass team is being invited to help teach and train emerging leaders to help support the work of the church. Serving with national leaders and the Encompass team you'll have the opportunity to be the hands, feet, and voice of Jesus.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Learn the language and culture so you can thrive in a cross-cultural ministry.
- Build relationships with students and families training at the Bible Institute.
- Help with student enrollment and other administrative needs.
- Work with the curriculum advisor on lesson planning while seeking needed resources.
- Teach students foundational Biblical beliefs applied to the local culture and church.
- Equip indigenous leaders to multiply culturally appropriate expressions of church.
- Commit to working on a team together with other global workers and indigenous leaders.
- Commit to discover ministry partners who will pray and support you financially.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Ability to adapt and be flexible in a different culture while maintaining the posture of a learner.
- Ability to learn a new language and communicate at a deeper level in that language.
- Ability to teach the Bible and positive pastoral ministry experience.
- A supportive sending church that helps to discern and affirm your readiness to enter ministry.
- A bachelor's degree with some formal Biblical training is preferred.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Encompass is committed to investing in you personally and professionally, so you're prepared for a growing, fruitful ministry. Global Workers at Encompass are committed to a growing faith in Jesus, see themselves primarily as disciple-makers, and want to serve together with others on a team. This is a long-term ministry opportunity that requires a commitment of six years. If you're interested in this opportunity and would like to talk with a mobilizer about it, please contact: GO@EncompassWorld.org and download our Pre-Application.
